Brooklyn and Manhattan Riders Good News! The N Express is Back.

N and R service will change when we temporarily regain use of all subway tracks across the Manhattan Bridge. (The City's Department of Transportation has suspended bridge work for at least one year.) The result will be improved service and reduced travel times.

N Will make express stops only between 59 Street in Brooklyn and 34 Street in Manhattan at all times except nights, saving you up to 17 minutes in travel time.

N Will make all stops from 34 Street to Astoria, including 49 Street/7 Avenue.

Will stop at DeKalb Avenue only on weekdays after 9 pm and on weekends.

R Will have increased rush hour service between Brooklyn and Manhattan.

Will continue to run local at all times except nights, when it will shuttle between the 36 Street and 95 Street stations in Brooklyn. During this time, the N will connect with the R at 36 Street and make all local stops.

B Will no longer stop at DeKalb Avenue.

With N express service restored, your trip will be faster and more convenient. The following chart provides samples of time savings.
